We believe VESL is different from most organisations that send volunteers overseas.

We are not a commercial company; we are a charity and are not profit-orientated.

Our goal is to send the best volunteers overseas and give them the support to enable them to make our projects a success, for both the individuals taking part and the communities we work within.

If you have any questions about VESL or our volunteer programme please don't hesitate to contact us on 0845 094 3727 or you can email info@vesl.org or visit our website - www.vesl.org
